

Land Allotment in Industrial Parks

Shri Nirupam Sen, Hon'ble Minister-in-Charge, Commerce & Industries Department, Govt. of West Bengal & Chairman, WBIDC allotted land in 4 industrial parks developed by WBIDC to promote rapid industrialization in the state. Shri Sen handed over Letters of allotment and Permissive Possession Certificates to 10 more investors. Shri Dipankar Mukhopadhyay, Additional Chief Secretary, Commerce & Industries Department, Govt. of West Bengal and Vice-Chairman, WBIDC, Dr. Subrata Gupta, MD, WBIDC and Mr. S. P. Yadav, ED, WBIDC were also present at the occasion.

4 industry units were allotted land in Raghunathpur Steel & Allied Ind. Park in Purulia. Jai Balaji which had possession of 1455.02 acres received an additional permissive possession of 180.61 acres. Damodar Valley Corporation (DVC) received 65.02 acres of land for Rail cum Road corridor for DVC thermal power station. Tantia Construction Ltd. was allotted 60 acres for wagon manufacturing plant. The proposed investment of the unit would be Rs. 475 crores and would create a total employment of 1500. OMM Sai Infra Holding Pvt. Ltd. was allotted 120 acres of land for integrated logistics park. With a proposed investment of Rs. 455.50 crores the project would create direct employment of 750 and indirect employment of 4500.

Land was allotted to Industry representatives from H&R Johnson (India) for a ceramic manufacturing plant and Technopoli India (P) Ltd. for Steel Poles in Panagarh Industrial Park. Panagarh Industrial Park's proximity to coal bed methane gas makes it advantageous to set up such plants. H&R Johnson (India) received 60 acres of land. The project with proposed investment of 136.60 crores would create direct employment of 300 and indirect employment of 1500 people. Technopoli India (P) Ltd. which is a Joint Venture with the Technopoli Group of Italy received 35 acres of land. The Tecnopoli Group is a leading company in Europe in the fields of public lighting, electric energy transmission and distribution, coating and renewable energy. The unit with proposed investment of Rs. 173.16 crores and total employment of 350 would manufacture steel poles. The unit would also be used by the Tecnopoli Group for exports to Africa and Middle East.

Siemens Vai Metal Technologies Pvt. Ltd. with one of the oldest units in West Bengal received 20 acres of land in Vidyasagar Industrial Park, Kharagpur. The project entailing proposed investment of Rs. 134.40 crores would manufacture high precision equipment for the Steel Industry.

5 Modules in Phase II of Garment Park were also allotted to Sita Apparels, Prapti Fashion (P) Ltd., Symphony Commotrade Pvt. Ltd., Reality Merchants Pvt. Ltd.